NORMANDALE TIMES

Published by the Normandale Residents' Association

APRIL 2022

Fond farewell to Cheryl Salt

In our March Normandale Times Cheryl Salt (Professionals) farewelled Normandale after almost 20 years as a real estate agent within our community.

Cheryl has been a constant presence around Normandale during that time and has always been an enthusiastic and passionate supporter of Normandale and the Residents' Association. Having a job that required working at all hours she was unable for many years to join the committee but found many ways to support us both financially and in person. When our notice board needed replacement, she arranged for the Professionals to sponsor a new map board as well as our community notice board, and she has personally sponsored the printing of the Normandale Times for decades. She always found ways to thank committee members for their work with little treats appearing in letterboxes.

As she gradually scaled back from her work, she found time to become an active member of our committee. If there was work to be done for the community you would inevitably find Cheryl there be it chopping up onions for the community barbeque or tidying up around the planting at the entrance to Normandale.

We wish Cheryl well in her retirement, but will miss her positive presence at our committee meetings and her support throughout all the aspects of our community work. However, we look forward to seeing her (and her scones) from time to time.

Petone to Melling Cycleway Construction Progress.

Construction work is progressing with the portion of the new Te Ara Project Cycleway close to Normandale. To date, the following has been achieved:

- The combined cycleway and footpath between the river stopbank and along Bridge St and to Greenway Park is complete.
- The cycleway path through Greenway Park and heading to Pharazyn St is complete.
- The cycleway path from Pharazyn St, underneath and following the Normandale Overbridge and to Parliament St is complete with the associated landscaping being a work in progress. (see photo).
- The approach to the railway underpass along Parliament St is a work in progress, with Parliament St being reduced to one way operation for the duration of this work.
- At the railway underpass, work is in progress.
- Between the underpass and the WesternHutt railway station, work is in progress.
- Between WesternHutt and Petone Railway stations, work is in progress.
